ABOUT NITTTR Kolkata

National Institute of Technical Teachers' Training and Research (NITTTR), Kolkata started its journey in 1965 under the Ministry of Education, Government of India. Government of India in 2003, accorded national status to this Institute. The primary focus of the Institute is to provide in-service training to the teachers and staff of Degree and Diploma level technical institutions and conduct activities related to the quality improvement of the technical education system of the country. The focal activities of the Institute incorporate Short Term Training Programs, Learning Resources Development, Educational Research and Management as also Extension Services and Curriculum Development. Apart from that the Institute is offering four M. Tech. Programs with state-of-the-art facilities, qualified faculty and staff members. To provide better services to North-Eastern States and others, the institute has established two extension centers at Guwahati and Bhubaneswar. Recently NITTTR Kolkata has been granted the "Deemed to be University" status under Distinct Category. This is a significant milestone in our journey towards academic excellence.

About BPGVS

Bharatiya Paramparik Gyan Vigyan Samaj (BPGVS) represents a national-level consortium comprising individuals of optimistic disposition and erudition, dedicated to the revival and reinstatement of Bharatiya Traditional Knowledge and Wisdom within the contemporary milieu. The relevance of Bharatiya Traditional Knowledge lies in its ability to think out and beyond without any fetters. The endeavour of this consortium entails a seamless integration of age-old wisdom with prevailing paradigms. BPGVS endeavours to instil the rich tradition of acquisition maintenance and transmission of knowledge without any hindrance, which is considered the basis of the sanātana-dharma. Leveraging the profound reservoir of Bharatiya Traditional Knowledge, it seeks to stimulate the creative potential and dynamism inherent in the young mind to make them contemplate and analyze, critical or otherwise, in a manner that aligns the mind, body, and soul in the reason of the relevance and strength of Bharatiya Knowledge tradition. This national consortium also attempts to cultivate the aptitudes of indigenous communities and instil an entrepreneurial spirit among them, collecting their indigenous practises of Bharatiya Traditional Knowledge, and thereby fostering community-centric self-help groups across the expanse of the nation, anchored in Bharatiya Wisdom.
